Arise Shine

Sir Harrison Stephen

Eke Chijindu Fvaour Hedges

23 Jan 2022

Allegro

Organ

The first system of music is for the Organ. It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The treble staff begins with a series of eighth-note chords, followed by a melodic line with eighth notes. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with quarter notes.

The second system of music is a piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff features a complex melodic line with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often beamed together. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with eighth-note patterns.

The third system of music consists of four vocal staves, each in a different clef (soprano, alto, tenor, and bass). Each staff contains a whole rest for the first two measures, followed by a final note in the third measure. The notes are marked with the letter 'A', indicating a specific pitch or chord.

The fourth system of music is a piano accompaniment, similar to the second system. It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff has a melodic line with eighth notes and chords, while the bass staff has a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth notes.
