Piano score for section D. The system consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The music features a complex melodic line in the treble with many sixteenth notes and a more rhythmic accompaniment in the bass. A box labeled 'D' is positioned above the second measure of the treble staff.

Piano score for the second system. It continues the piece with similar melodic and harmonic textures. The treble staff has a more active line with frequent sixteenth-note patterns, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment.

Piano score for section E. A box labeled 'E' is positioned above the first measure of the treble staff. The key signature changes to two sharps (F# and C#). The melodic line in the treble is more intricate, featuring many sixteenth notes and some accidentals.

Piano score for the third system, featuring a first and second ending. The system is divided into two parts by a double bar line. The first ending (marked '1.') leads to a repeat sign, and the second ending (marked '2.') provides an alternative conclusion. The notation includes first and second endings with repeat signs and a fermata over the final note of the first ending.

Piano score for section F. A box labeled 'F' is positioned above the first measure of the treble staff. The key signature changes to two sharps (F# and C#). The piece concludes with a final melodic flourish in the treble and a sustained accompaniment in the bass.
