

Away upon the mountain top (Austrian carol)

Trad., tr. anon and DB-D

Trad., arr. Douglas Brooks-Davies

$\text{♩} = 88$

SOPRANO
ALTO

1. A - way up - on the moun-tain top, Where gent - le breez - es blow mild, There Vir - gin Ma - ry,
2. From high - est heav'n the an - gles come To watch and safe - ly — keep The Ba - by there, so
3. The Ba - by wakes from sleep so deep, And looks up to the — sky, — 'Great peace shall come to

TENOR
BASS

6

mo - ther dear, car - es - ses her be - lov'd Child. She holds Him oh so ten - der - ly, With hands snow - y sweet and fair, So peace - ful in His sleep. They bring Him flow'rs from pa - ra - dise, With scent fine and all man - kind, And Death it - self shall — die' — Thus sing the an - gels, thus sings Earth, As weep - ing does white, Pro - tects Him though no crib is near, And lulls Him through the — night.

12

rare, Pro - tect Him though no crib is near, That Child, God's sc - ri - fice. Di - ri - di - ri, hal - le - cease. And then they shout: 'All praise to Him, The God of love on — high'.

18

lu - ia, hal - le - lu - i - a, Di - ri - di - ri, — hal - le - lu - ia, Di - ri, hal - le - lu - i - a!