Irish Traditional

Very Quick

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a time signature of 6/8. It begins with a repeat sign and contains six measures of eighth-note and quarter-note patterns. The lower staff is in bass clef with a key signature of one flat and a time signature of 6/8. It contains six measures of chords, some with a '7' indicating a seventh chord.

7

The second system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from measure 7, featuring eighth-note and quarter-note patterns with a repeat sign. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with chords, including some with a '7'.

13

The third system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from measure 13, featuring eighth-note and quarter-note patterns with a repeat sign. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with chords, including some with a '7'.

19

The fourth system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from measure 19, featuring eighth-note and quarter-note patterns with a repeat sign. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with chords, including some with a '7'. The system concludes with two endings: the first ending is marked '1.' and the second ending is marked '2.'. The first ending leads to a double bar line with the instruction 'D.S.' (Da Capo), and the second ending leads to a double bar line with the instruction 'Fine'.
