4. As I was passing my father's door, my brother William stood at the door.
My aged father stood there also, my tender mother her hair she tore.
5. As I was going up Wexford Hill, who could blame me to cry my fill?
I looked behind and I looked before, my aged mother I shall see no more.
6. As I was mounted on the scaffold high, my aged father was standing by.
My aged father did me deny, and the name he gave me was the croppy boy.
7. 'Twas in the Dungannon this young man died, and in Dungannon his body lies.
And you good people that do pass by, oh, shed a tear for the croppy boy.
