“A Little Bird” Fantasy

This is a short Fantasy & Sonata within itself for violin solo composed for Yamaha Lamlukka Music School's Christmas and New Year's Student Concert from 23 to 24 December 2023. To participate the concert according to myself as a composer rather than a piano teacher, “A Little Bird” by M. Maeda from Yamaha Piano Lesson Book 2 was selected as original melody for my new composition because overall the piece is in high range, as well as its' character, is suitable for violin. However, in this concert, the piece will be performed by a teacher.

The piece should be short because it will be performed in Student Concert. However, I complete a concept of Sonata referenced to Mozart's Piano Sonata No.11 in A major (K.331) which does not occur Sonata Form within this piece. The development of theme and key transform is done in Variations. These would create this little Fantasy in an adjusted cyclic Sonata Form become a unique Sonata piece among entire concert. By this, combines with my analysis on Schubert's Fantasia in C major (D.760) or Wanderer Fantasy, it refers to myself that Schubert's Fantasia mentioned is a Sonata even though Schubert did not title it. I emphasis on this because I was questioned by my teacher, Dr. Narongrit Dhamabutra in my DM thesis final defense about the status of Schubert's piece. These, finally decide me to title pieces I recently composed as Sonata.

According to the schedule, the piece will be performed in the following concert by Worawat Sirisak, a violin teacher of Yamaha Lamlukka Music School.
